ADDITIONAL RESOURCES

ELDERLY NUTRITION PROGRAMS

Home-Delivered Meals (Meals On Wheels): Persons over 60, the spouse of an eligible participant, and certain disabled persons under the age of 60, may qualify for meals home-delivered up to five times a week. Donations are invited.

Senior Meals: Hot meals served in a social setting in many towns in the region, anywhere from daily to several times a month to Vermonters over 60 and their spouses of any age, plus certain others. Donations are invited.

For details about these programs or whether there may be transportation services to meal sites, contact:

Council on Aging for Southeastern Vermont at 802-885-2655 or the toll-free Vermont Senior HelpLine at 1-800-642-5119 (voice/TTY). The HelpLine will ring at the Area Agency on Aging serving the region where the call is made.

VERMONT FOODBANK

The foodbank is different from a food shelf. Vermont has only one foodbank. The Vermont Foodbank distributes millions of pounds of food through its network of food shelves, meal sites and other network partners. The Foodbank also makes certain federal commodities available to food shelves to distribute to income-eligible households. For more details, visit <http://www.vtfoodbank.org> or call them at 802-476-3341 or 1-800-585-BANK. Mail address: PO Box 254 / South Barre, VT 05670

Southeastern Vermont
Community Action (SEVCA)
91 Buck Drive
Westminster, VT 05158-9618

For a range of services for low income residents of this region, contact the main office in Westminster at 802-772-4575 or 1-800-464-9951 toll-free or one of the SEVCA outposts in:

Brattleboro	254-2795
Springfield	885-6153
White River	295-5215
Wilmington	464-7500
Windsor	674-2900

This list is prepared by the Economic Services Division of the Vermont Department for Children and Families. For corrections, please notify Mary Carlson at 802-241-2458 or by email (mary.carlson@ahs.state.vt.us).
